Seeds for the Journey

Jesus first used these words after his resurrection, appearing to His disciples who were in hiding, saying, "Peace be with you." This was not a simple greeting but a declaration of His presence, a prayer for their peace, and a source of strength for them.

"Peace be with you" embodies a sense of wholeness, tranquility, and well-being as a prayer, a wish, and a reminder of Christ's gift of peace to His followers.

Fr. Paul says: "The peace of the Lord be with you always!" During the Mass, and the congregation responds, "And with your spirit".

Deacon Mark invites us to share the "Sign of Peace," with one another before receiving Communion symbolizing unity and harmony within the community. Offering the sign of peace to one another reflects God's love and mercy.

Second Collection: Aid to the Church in Central & Eastern Europe

This weekend is the collection to help support the Church in Central and Eastern Europe. This collection supports the Church in over 25 countries that are still struggling to recover in the aftermath of communist rule. Funds from this collection support pastoral care, catechesis, building renovations, and seminary formation.

To support this collection, please make your check payable to St. Paul's, adding "Aid to the Church in Central & Eastern Europe" in the memo. Thank you for your support.

Everyday Stewardship

Recognize God in Your Ordinary Moments

If you had $100 to give away, to whom would you give it? Perhaps you would choose someone you love. How about someone on the street at a corner stoplight? You could really make someone's day if you gave it to them as a tip after a modestly priced meal. There are so many possibilities. No matter to whom you give the $100, you are certainly being generous. No one can debate that.

Let's say you have narrowed it down to two different people. You know both of these people, and you suspect each person would be equally grateful. Does it make a difference who you give the money to in the end? What if I told you that one of the individuals just got a big raise at work, and the other person is at risk of having their water turned off because they have been late paying their bill. Does it make a difference now?

Discernment should always be an important part of any good steward's way of life. If we give simply for the sake of giving, that may not always be the best use of our gifts. In order to gain the most fruit from the seeds we plant, we must plant wisely. All we have been given has value, and we need be good caretakers of it all. If you ever do find yourself with $100 to spare, be sure to carefully consider all the options and make the wiser choice. In the meantime, pray for wisdom and reflect on how to best use all you have been given for the sake of the Kingdom of God.

July: Be a Beacon of Hope

"Christian hope is precisely this 'something greater,' which should spur us to set out 'with haste.' As disciples of the Lord, we are called to find our greater hope in him, and then, without delay, carry that hope with us, as pilgrims of light amid the darkness of this world. (POPE LEO XIV).

How can you spread hope this month? Create a message of hope for your front yard or send notes of hope to neighbors and friends or bring hope to someone who is lonely by paying them a visit!

From the John Walsh Library

Phalen, C.S.C., John Living the Rosary

When he was a small boy, Father Phalen used to mischievously disrupt family rosary time with tricks and jokes, but eventually he grew to appreciate its beauty. He uses scripture, the lives of the Saints, and his own past pastoral experiences to lead readers into a deeper appreciation of the personal impact of the mysteries of the rosary. He reminds us that God's incarnation continues today and that we can participate in this miracle through this powerful meditative prayer, the rosary. Beginning with his own vocation story (an example of "annunciation"), he offers 20 different stories that will help readers understand and live each mystery of the rosary. Meditating on these mysteries will help us recognize how our lives and the life of Christ connect. (Call No. 242.74-PHA)

Devotions, Explained!

The prayer to St. Michael, composed by Pope Leo XIII, invokes the protection of the archangel Michael in the ongoing spiritual battle for the souls of all mankind. It is commonly said at the end of the rosary and by some parishes after the conclusion of Mass.

Prayer for Evangelization

*As You reach out to the world, Lord, let us be Your hands!
As You answer those crying, send us.*

Let us be Your people, answer to prayers prayed, comfort to the afflicted.

*May we be laborers in Your harvest.
Amen!*
